NARRATIVE:

Wagner, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 and includes carry concealed weapon on person, carry loaded firearm on person in a public place, receive known stolen property, false imprisonment, driving under the influence of alcohol and drugs, vehicle theft, battery, vandalism, multiple assault and battery on a peace officer, theft, possession of controlled substance, multiple assault with a deadly weapon, domestic violence, parole violations and violation of supervised release. Wagner, has served five prison terms, the longest being three years for domestic violence. He was released most recently, to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on 07/02/2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2013 after Wagner absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Wagner qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for domestic violence is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
